

Olivia Newton-John and special friends release album to help better cancer research and patient care

Olivia Newton-John has recorded a new album of duets to inspire people touched by cancer, and to raise money for the Olivia Newton-John Cancer Centre Appeal to better cancer research and patient care.

The album, "A Celebration in Song – Olivia Newton-John and Friends" includes Australian and international guest artists who donated their time and talent for the album.

Olivia co-wrote the album's lead track and theme song with Delta Goodrem for the recent Great Walk to Beijing fundraiser, titled "Right Here With You". Other guest artists include Sir Cliff Richard, Keith Urban, Barry Gibb, Jimmy Barnes, Richard Marx, Melinda Schneider, Amy Sky, Jann Arden, Sun Ho and John Farrar.

The album also includes a song from Rove McManus' former wife, the late Belinda Emmet who lost her long struggle with cancer at age 32, in 2006.

Proceeds from the album sales go to the Olivia Newton-John Cancer and Wellness Centre to provide international research of all types of cancer, patient care and treatment to help heal the whole person – body, mind and spirit.

"A Celebration in Song – Olivia Newton-John and Friends" is available at all music stores across Australia through Warner Music. The album will be available worldwide from July 15 through EMI records.
